curious about a subject, but you couldn't reference it in academic work. It's also worth noting that although Wikibooks' editors are sharp-eyed, some less scrupulous contributors may plagiarize copyright-protected work by other authors. Some recipes, for example, appear to be paraphrased from well-known chefs.

Blue is a date, pink is an important person, green is something that may be on a test one day, etc. At the end of the day, this is time-consuming AF. Color coding your notes makes them pretty, but it doesn't necessarily make them practical. My advice, skip the color coding during lecture and do it in a different way.
