Crusaders Cathars And The Holy

The Albigensian Crusade or the Cathar Crusade was a 20-year military campaign initiated by Pope Innocent III to eliminate Catharism in Languedoc, in southern France. The Crusade was prosecuted primarily by the French crown and promptly took on a political flavour, resulting in not only a significant reduction in the number of practising Cathars, but also a realignment of the County of Toulouse in Languedoc, bringing it into the sphere of the French crown, and diminishing both Languedoc's distinct

To Cathars, the Elect were the embodiment of the Holy Spirit and were considered with reverence and obedience. That is not to say that they were considered imbued with special powers for they did not absolve, grant or perform special rites such as confession. They did however, pray to God on behalf of believers.
