Gracious | Definition of Gracious at Dictionary.com

Have we lost the ability to be magnanimous when winning or gracious in victory? Are we incapable of shedding a victim's impulse for retribution? If so, that's sad.

Opinion | Have we lost the ability to be gracious in victory?

Without it, we don't forgive ourselves for our failings and we give in to despair and hopelessness. It is this balance, this gracious anger, that we must work toward, and it is hard to achieve. If we are too gracious, we get walked all over. If we are too consumed by rage, we lose our humanity.
