Poems for Graduation.

On graduation day, friends and family often turn to poetry to express what they would like to pass on to the next generation—a few lines of guidance, a gesture toward possibility. The familiar standards include Robert Frost 's " The Road Not Taken ," Langston Hughes 's " Dreams ," and Rudyard Kipling 's " If— .".

Poem #2. I like the next poem on this page because it has what a friend of mine calls "an economy of words." Each line has four or five syllables . . . and one word. Now that's economical! Of course, I had to give it a long wordy title, just to balance the thing out. Just a Few Words on the Occasion of Your Graduation . . .
