Further, a substance is intellectual by the fact that it is immaterial. But the soul is immaterial through its essence. Therefore it seems that the soul must be intellectual through its essence. On the contrary, The Philosopher assigns the intellectual faculty as a power of the soul (De Anima ii, 3).

Just as a principal can grant a power of attorney to anyone of their choosing, it is usually up to the principal to revoke that grant. If you want to step in, and have a court override the principal's decision, you're going to need to give the court a good reason for it: dementia, psychiatric issues, or some other form of mental incapacity.
